Contests have occurred on 4 delegates in Clarke and all in Botetourt, but with the exception of the O'Ferrall delegates in both instances. Only three districts have elected in Campbell, one in Chesterfield, and two in Prince Edward. Wythe is instructed for Kent, but would divide 4 for O'Ferrall and 14 for Tyler as second choice.

ROANOKE IS SAFE.

There is no doubt that the financial pressure and depression existing all over the world are extremely severe. A glance at the columns of the daily papers shows that. But out of all the trouble and rumors of trouble several facts stand prominent.

First. The severer the panic the more quickly will come the turning point and the more speedily relief.

Second. The shutting down of manufacturing plants gives their employees a vacation which may be very pleasant to the thrifty ones.

Third, there will be a demand for a better system of finance which Congress must heed.

It is well to be philosophical over the situation. It is purely a money panic.
People who have money have locked it up; being scared out of their wits by shadows. There is no way to stop a man from locking up his money if he wants to. But it is a regular "wolf" scare all the same, and in a few months people will crawl out of their hole and wonder what they ran for. In the meanwhile the shrewd and courageous ones are taking advantage of the fearful depression and buying in the good things right and left.

In this connection there is quite a let down due on American sharpness.
A few years ago we sold British investors brewery and other industrial stocks, cattle and mining stocks, railroad bonds and corner-lots at regular balloon figures. The Briton bit and bit deeply.

In about three years he discovered it.
Did he kick? He did. He promptly kicked the bulk of his purchases right back on the American market and sold them for what they would bring. Now he is buying our wheat and cotton at the lowest prices in thirty years, and picking up gilt-edged stocks and bonds at prices which will yield 10 per cent. a year right along. He has covered his losses and is making us pay them.
Great people, those cousins of ours.

But there is one particular section of America which can thank its stars that for two long, hard years it has been getting into trim for just what is now happening all over the country—and that is Roanoke. Lucky for us that the rush stopped in the fall of 1890. We have been trimming sails ever since.

As a result Roanoke banks, industries and business houses are making fair progress under close-reefed sails, while the Northern and Western financial ships are buffeting the waves with broken masts, strained hulls and, too often, the rocks in sight. As a result, with the first signs of clearing weather Roanoke will set all sails and forge ahead, while the rest are laid to to repair damages.

VIRGINIA: A HANDBOOK.

We have received from Hon. Thos. B.
Whitehead, commissioner of agriculture, the official publication of the State board of agriculture, under the title of "Virginia: a Handbook." As stated on its title page, it gives the history, climate and mineral wealth, its educational, agricultural and industrial advantages. The publication reflects credit on the commissioner who compiled it. It is beyond doubt a most valuable publication and its wide circulation throughout the country will make it one of the best advertisements Virginia has ever had.

The book contains 341 pages, printed on excellent paper and illustrated with numerous fine engravings. It is exhaustive so far as the thoroughness of the work is concerned, yet there is not a dry page in the book. It is a valuable compendium and should be in every man's library for reference.

FOUR HEROINES INDEED.

They Row in the Face of a Gale to Save a Boy's Life.

NANTUCKET, Mass., July 20.—In the face of a howling gale, with sea running wild, four young ladies yesterday afternoon rescued a youth from drowning at the entrance to the harbor. Four boys had been bluebaiting and when the squal set in their boat capsized. Three managed to cling to the upturned craft, but a fourth, Winchel Dunham, foundered about and swam until exhausted.
Miss Alice Corse, Miss Ruth Loring, Miss Edna Corse and Miss Stella Loring are guests at Monomoy cottages, and are proficient at rowing. They had been across the harbor to the town, and were returning when the gale sprang up and when a mile from the boys' craft they saw it capsize. Regardless of the danger, they rowed as fast as possible to their assistance, right in the face of the storm, with the rough sea breaking every now and then over their boat.

Wet to the skin they tugged at the oars until they reached Dunham's side and while Miss Edna Corse held his head above water Miss Loring got a rope about his body and he was dragged aboard. His face was black and he acted like a maniac. It was with difficulty that two of the girls restrained him from jumping overboard, while their companions kept the boat righted. A sailing craft hove in sight and took off the three boys from their perilous position, and soon a yacht picked up the girls and young Dunham.

The captain and crew of the yacht say the young women were cool and brave, and assisted in rolling the lad on the deck to bring him to. It is proposed to bestow gold medals on them in recognition of their brave deed.

SEIZED THE TOBACCO.

It Was Classified as "Fillers" Instead of Best Wrappers.

PHILADELPHIA, July 20.—Special Treasury Agent Marcus Hanlon, has ordered the seizure of several large consignments of Sumatra tobacco, which was undervalued when it passed through the Philadelphia custom house. Duty had been paid at the rate of 35 cents per pound, it having been invoiced as "fillers" instead of best wrappers, which it proved to be, and which should have paid duty at the rate of two dollars per pound. The tobacco seized all came from Montreal, consigned to J. Mertz, and was classified at Odgersburg, N. Y., by the custom collector at that port. It came through in the same manner as that seized recently by Inspector Castor.
It is estimated by this system of underv-valuation, losses at Philadelphia alone have aggregated not less than $1,500,000.

Atlanta Has a Sensation.

ATLANTA, July 20.—Atlanta had a sensation today. In a controversy between Dr. D. W. Westmoreland and Lawyer D. W. Rountree, both prominent young men, Rountree acted as Westmoreland's attorney, and Westmoreland charged him with highly dishonorable practices. Rountree replied in a card applying opprobrious epithets to the physician. Atlanta expected a shooting affray when these cards appeared, but the police arrested both men, and they will have a hearing to-morrow. The outlook is that as soon as the court proceedings are concluded the expected fight will occur.

Wheeling Full of Thieves.

WHEELING, W. Va., July 20.—During the past week there has been a remarkable run of robberies and burglaries in this city. In almost every case the criminals have been arrested and half a dozen are already under sentence to the penitentiary, but the lawlessness still keeps up, the town being apparently full of thieves. The property taken runs from $300 down in each case.

Will Pay up in Full.

MOBILE, Ala., July 20.—The comptroller of the currency has authorized Receiver H. M. Hall, Jr., of the Alabama National Bank of Mobile to pay a dividend of 50 per cent. on all claims against the bank. The receiver estimates that he will eventually have enough funds to liquidate the claims, which amount to $50,000.

Gen. John G. Walker Dead.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 20.—Gen.
John G. Walker, died at his residence in this city to-day from a stroke of paralysis sustained Thursday last. He was 70 years of age and lived in Winchester, Va.

Gingham Mill to Shut Down.

PORTLAND, Me., July 20.—At a directors' meeting to-day it was decided to shut down the mills of the Westbrook Manufacturing Company, makers of gingham, from July 25 till September 4.

BASEBALL TODAY.

The R. A. C. Boys Feel Confident That They Will Win.

The strong Y. M. C. A. team of Washington will make their first appearance here this afternoon to play against the R. A. C. team. The home team will put forth every effort to win and there is no doubt that it will be one of the greatest games of the season. It was decided at the last moment to put in Boyd and Daniels for the first game.
The home players have been practicing very hard this week, being on the grounds every evening and have made considerable improvement, especially in bunting which is considered their weak point. They feel very confident of winning one if not both of the games from their strong opponents, and if faithful work during the week in practice counts for anything when the game is called it will be found that R. A. C. boys will not be in the van. A large crowd should be present and encourage the home team on to victory. The game will be called at 4:30 sharp.
The following will be the make up of the two teams:

ROANOKE. Y. M. C. A.
Daniels. . . . . Catcher. . . . . E. Hodge Boyd. . . . . Pitcher. . . . . Cullinower
Smith. . . . . First Base. . . . . O'Hagan Wigmore. . . . . Second Base. . . . . C. Hodge Thompson. . . . . Third Base. . . . . Johnson Illey. . . . . Short Stop. . . . . Bolway Hende. . . . . Left Field. . . . . Sanford McGinnis. . . . . Center Field. . . . . Hauptman
Foster. . . . . Right Field. . . . . McCrory

LYNCHBURG, July 20.—The second game of ball between the Washington Y. M. C. A. team and the Lynchburgs was witnessed this afternoon by one of the largest crowds of the season and was won by the home team by a score of 7 to 6 after a hard fought game of ten innings. The game was one of the most brilliant and exciting ever seen in this city, the playing of both teams being of the gilt edged order. The batteries were Glass and McKenna for Lynchburg and Hodge and Brooks for the visitors.

A Famous Distiller Assigns.

FRANKFORT, Ky., July 20.—A sensation was caused in business circles here to-day by the assignment of Col. E. H.
Taylor, Jr., the famous distiller, to the Lexington Trust Company. The liabilities are not given out, but it is said they are far exceeded by the assets.
The tightness of the money market, which made it difficult to realize on goods, caused the assignments.

The Meeting Passed off Quietly.

AUGUSTA, Ga., July 20.—A special to the Chronicle from Washington, Ga., says that the Watson meeting passed off without any trouble. About two thousand people were present, fifteen hundred negroes and five hundred white Populists. The Democrats kept away, not over twenty-five being present.

Meet Graduates Everywhere.

The sweet girl graduate is heard in the land. She is coming forth from Vassar and Wellesley and Smith and Bryn Mawr and many other educational resorts of greater or less note and keeping up the reputation of the woman of the period. Just to show how easy it is, a young woman passed the Yale classical examination the other day. Of course that was the end of it as far as she was concerned, but it was a pleasant pastime.

Another young woman took the degree of Ph. D. at Johns Hopkins. She has not decided what she will do with it, but she will probably tack it on to the wall along with four or five other degrees that she has taken at various colleges. Miss Jean Nelson was not so fortunate. Jean lives out in Indiana and was caught in the act of pilfering examination papers. Young men have been caught doing this sort of thing for several centuries, but women have been more scrupulous. Miss Nelson proves, however, that there is no field occupied by men which women may not hope to invade.—New York World.

Enlilte Takes to Johnny Cake.

Among the tastes which the Princess Enlilte has acquired since her arrival in America is a strong one for corn bread.
This is what Colonel J. C. Murphy, the corn man of the department of agriculture says:

Some days ago in Washington, when looking over the bill of fare of the dinner given the infant I noticed that corn bread was not mentioned. I asked the proprietor of the Arlington the reason for this, and he said sweet corn was not in season and there was no need to have corn bread on the bill of fare because the princess insisted on it being served at every meal. When the infant first got to the hotel in Washington all kinds of bread were placed on the table, and the royal guests picked out some corn muffins as the most toothsome of the lot.
She is fond of having them toasted, too, which is rather unusual with us. The day of her arrival the princess in dining at the Palmer House asked right away for corn muffins.—Chicago Times.

Romance of a Substitute.

A romantic affair has occurred in the Turkish army. A short time ago the discovery was made quite accidentally in Pristina that a young girl named Hanko had been serving 34 years under her brother's name, Alt Redschib, in the Fifteenth regiment there, and had distinguished herself by specially good conduct. The Sultan was informed of the unheard of case of a woman hanging with men for years unweiled. When he learned that the young girl had taken this daring step in order to free her brother, who was the only support of his mother, from military service, he bestowed the Chefakat order of the third class upon her and has given her a pension of 5 Turkish pounds a month. She was of course sent home at once, and her brother remained free from serving.
—London Tit-Bits.

Decorations at Dinners.

Such strides have been made in confectionery of late that at any special dinner the cakes and bonbons, which help to garnish the table in their little silver dishes, are made of any tint desired and generally either match or are in accord with the floral decorations. The arrangement of the latter is still kept low, and the flowers should not be overcrowded in their silver receptacles. Except in the centerpiece, all flowers look better in groups of twos and threes, and quality rather than quantity is a rule particularly applicable to the floral decorations of a table.—Exchange.
